

NEW APPOINTMENTS

Henry V. Poor, '42, has been named Assistant Dean of the Law School to succeed Charles Runyon, '39, who resigned in July to become Legal Adviser for African Affairs in the State Department. Mr. Poor is in charge of student financial aid and will assist Associate Dean Tate on admissions work and in recruiting.

Since graduating from the Law School, Mr. Poor has been a member of the staff of the Central Intelligence Agency and a partner in the firm of Greenman, Shea & Zimet in New York City. More recently, he has been Director and General Counsel of the New York State Housing Finance Agency. He is married to the former Elizabeth Neal. They have five children and reside in North Branford, Connecticut.

